DAILY DIARY
1953

Dear Diary,

Here is a record of our 1952-53 school year. During the year we have had many ups and downs, but here we recall the happy times. Most of all we remember our classmates, the Indians, the purple and gold, the fighting school spirit and . . .

ITAWAMBA JUNIOR COLLEGE
— AND —
AGRICULTURAL HIGH SCHOOL

FULTON, MISSISSIPPI

To the STUDENTS, STAFF, and FACULTY:

Through proper planning, coordinated efforts and h work, many things can be done. Success usually comes t those who go the extra mile. Our efforts should always be directed toward a bigger, better, and a more useful Itawamba Junior College and Agricultural High School.

It is my most sincere desire that this institution will continue to help lead the way to better educational opportunities for our people.

In all our planning we should seek spiritual guidance to lead us to real success.

Sincerely,

Philip A Sheffield

In Memoriam

Bobby Warren

June 2, 1933—September 7, 1952

Bobby Warren was in the first week of his sophomore year when he was killed in a car wreck which killed several members of his family.

Bobby was in the Commercial department. He took an active part in the B.S.U. His memory will always be with us, because of his sweet manner and friendly disposition. He leaves an empty place in the hearts of his many friends.

Russell Davis

June 1, 1933—December 25, 1952

Russell Davis was in his second semester at I.J.C. He and his brother were killed in an automobile accident on Christmas night.

He was a valuable basketball player the time he was here and was well loved by all who knew him. His happy and friendly manners seemed to be a part of our student body. He leaves a vacant place among his teammates and friends.

SCRIPTURE of the Year:

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

MOTTO
Find a way or make one.

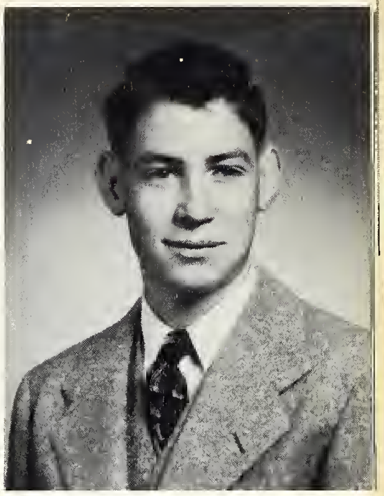
JERRY CAPWELL
Reporter

ROBBIE ALVERSON

The one so like the other.

MARY JANE ARNOLD

My woes end with the evening sun.



JAMES BALLARD

I do believe her, though I know she lies.

PEGGY BOREN

But love is blind, and lovers cannot see.

WILLENA BROWN

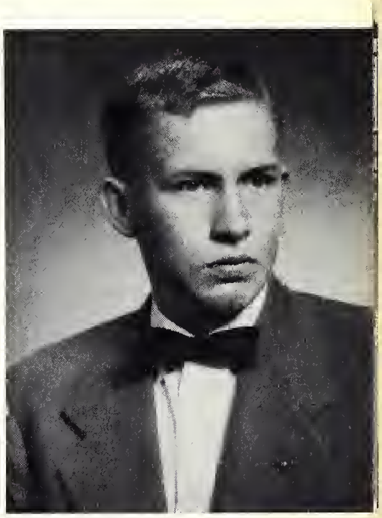
True regard for the feelings of others.

CAROLYN BURCH

Your name is great in mouths of wisest censure.

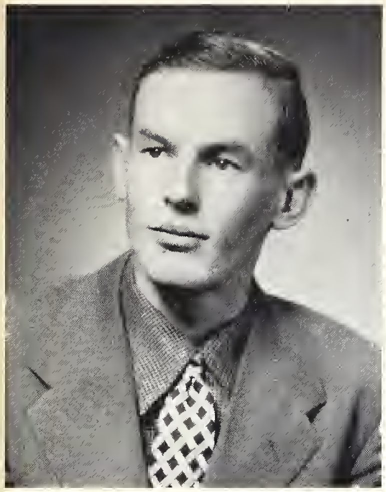
GERRIE BURNS

There is language in her eye, her cheek, her lip.

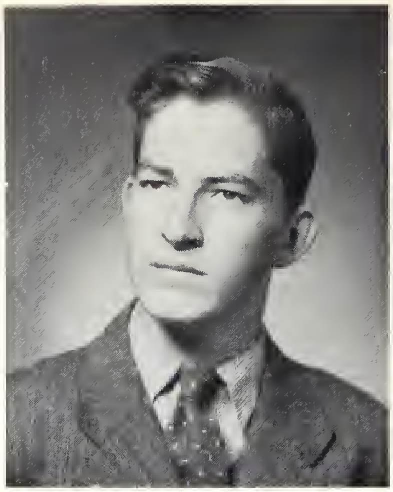


JERRY CAPWELL

The thunder of my cannon will be heard.



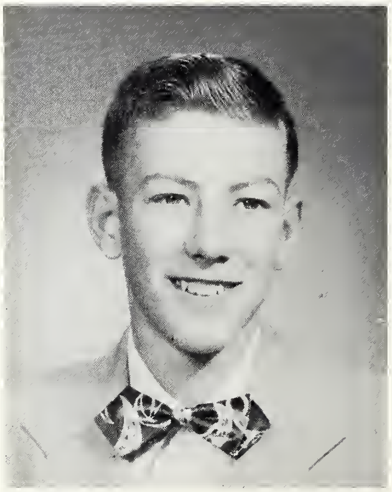
Charles Clayton
Better learn late than never.



Dwayne Coker
Upon my brow shame is ashamed to sit.

Betty Comer
Feminine as a subtle perfume.

Sylvia Comer
To sleep: perchance to dream.



Larry Cooley
A little body with a mighty heart.

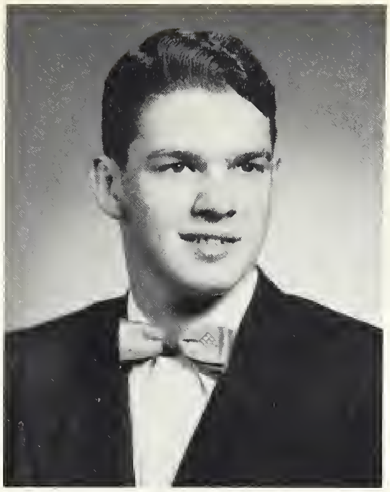
Verlon Crowder
What judgment shall I dread, doing no wrong.

Ellaween Davis
Life is sweet to everyone.

Ann DeVaughn
As sweet and fair as roses in the spring.

MARTHA DUNCAN

Shall I compare thee to a summer's day; thou art more lovely and more temperate.

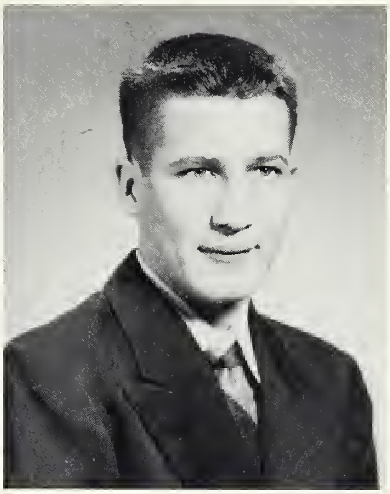


JOE EARNEST

Hope not for impossibilities.

ANNE FOSTER

She doeth little kindnesses that others leave undone.

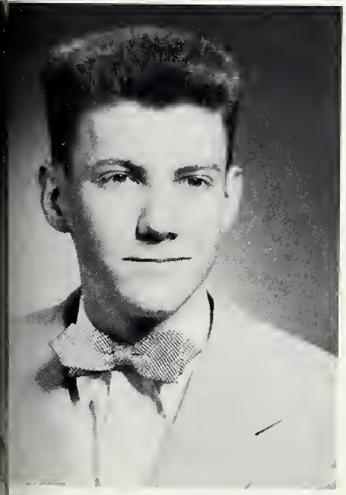


JACK FROST

A woman would run through fire and water for such a kind heart.

JAMES GADDY

He never turned his back on his friend.



GEORGE GANN

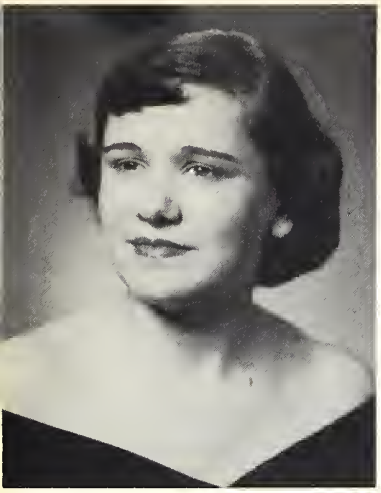
He has a heart as sound as a bell.

JO ANN GANN

Her voice was ever soft, gentle and low.

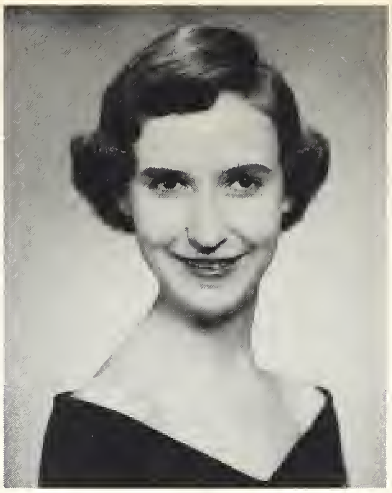
PHYLLIS GORDEN

For beauty lives with kindness.



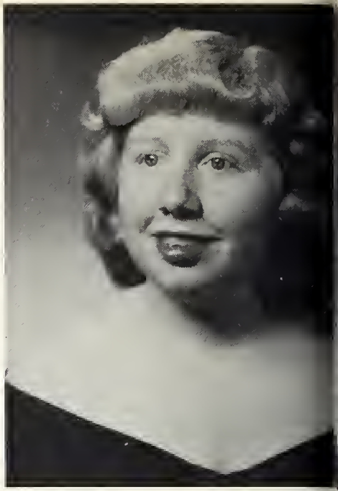
Joyce Gray

For her fortune shows herself more kind than is her custom.



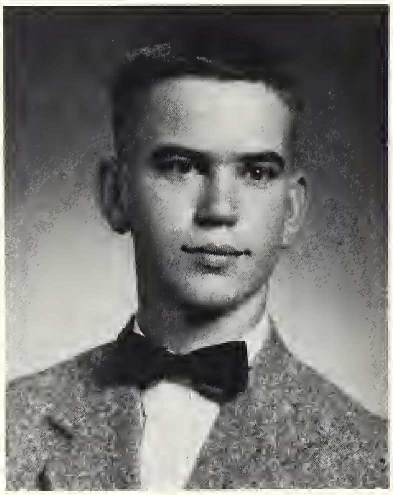
Peggy Gray

I am a part of all that I have met.



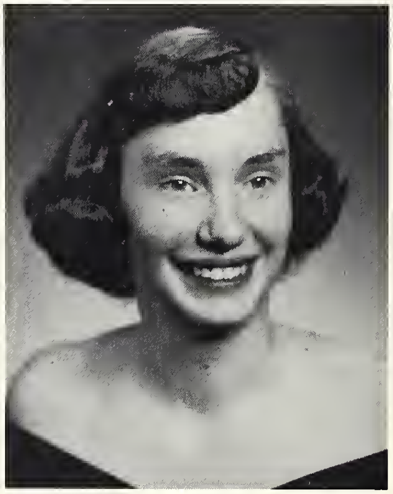
Mary Sue Green

There is no other like her—a calm sweetness; trusty, ever fine.



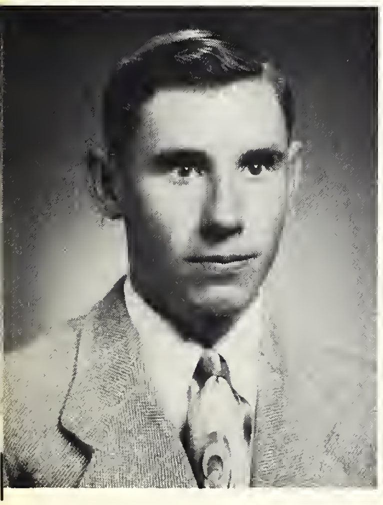
Bibb Gurley

Life is as tedious as a twice-told tale.



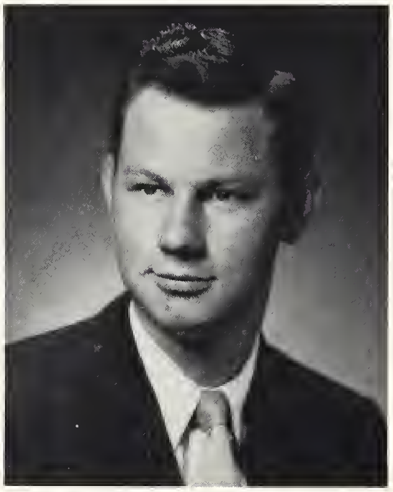
Martha Gurley

For there was never yet philosopher that could endure the toothache patiently.



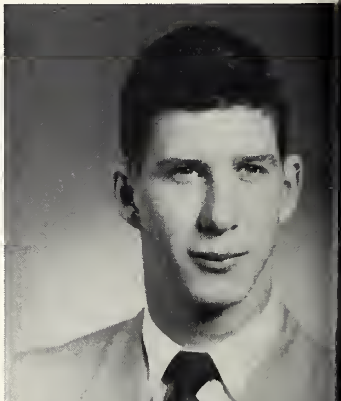
Dalton Hawkins

Reading makes a full man; writing makes an exact one.



Franz Hilliard

His personality is surprising.



Don Holcomb

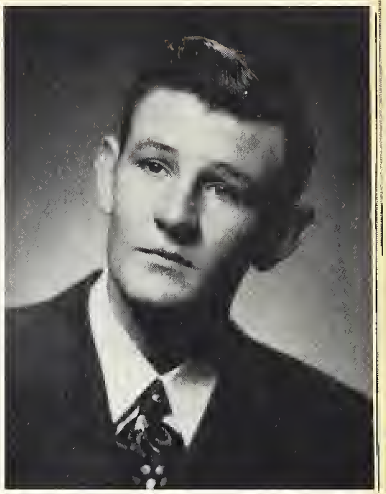
He regulates his life wisely.

Eupil Hood

If with her tongue she cannot win a man.

Robbie Houston

The hand that hath made you fair hath made you good.



Delmar Jamerson

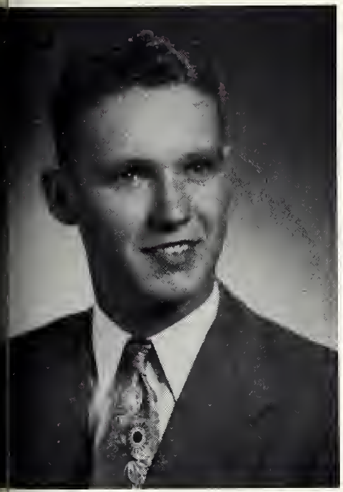
When my love swears she is made of truth.

Louise Jarrel

I know thou art full of love and honesty.

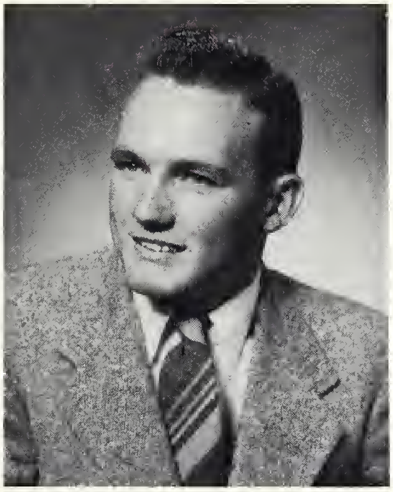
Nella Johnson

Wrought she not well that painted it.



Tremon Keith

A proper man as one shall see on a summer's day.



Truman Keith

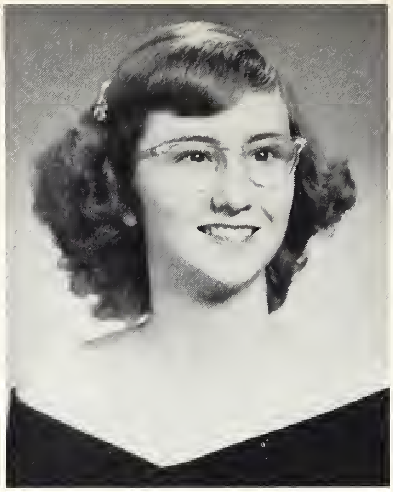
The pretty dimples of his· chin and cheek.

Wade King

He was nor sad nor merry.

Ellen Loden

Those who love her know her best.

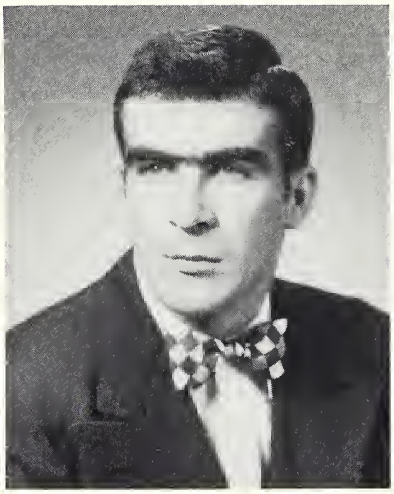


Jettie Loden

Touch you the sourest points with sweetest terms.

Mary Loden

Pure is the spirit that dwells within.



Gayle McFerrin

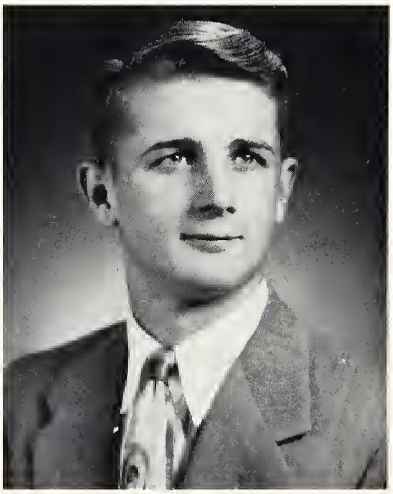
His years are young but his experience old.

Mary Nell McKinney

She is beautiful and therefore to be wooed.

Betty McNeece

She has all the makings of a queen.



Billy Martin

The king-becoming graces, as justice, verity, stableness . . .

Dorothy Martin

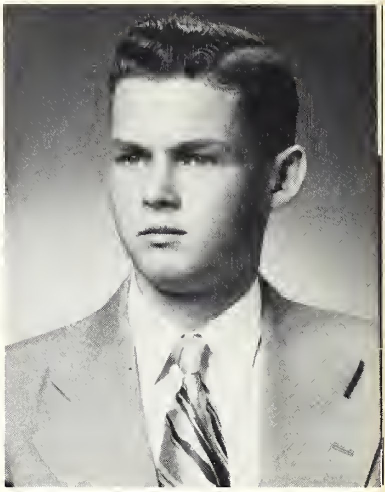
Few words but to effect.

Lois Martin

And the lady shall say her mind freely.

Fannie Ann Mayhall

Friendly counsel cuts off many foes.



Wyatt Mills

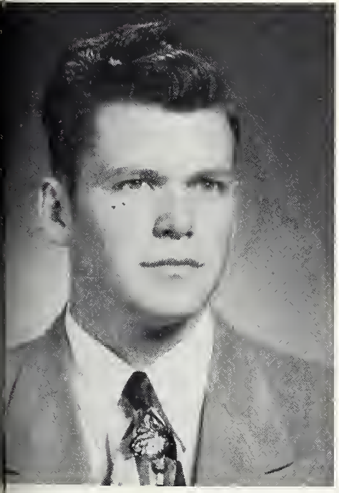
Why worry? Things are going to happen anyhow.

Shirley Nichols

I have decreed not to sing in my cage.

Bobbye Oswalt

Keep a good tongue in your head.



Kenneth Palmer

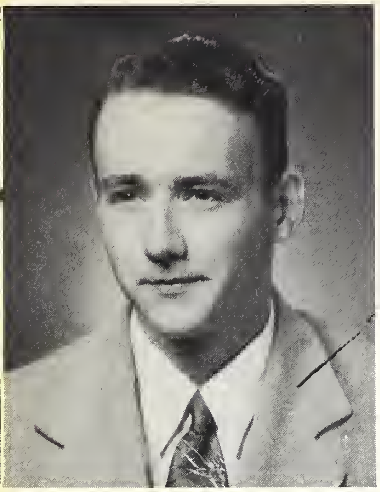
The force of his own merit makes his way.

Gary Pennington

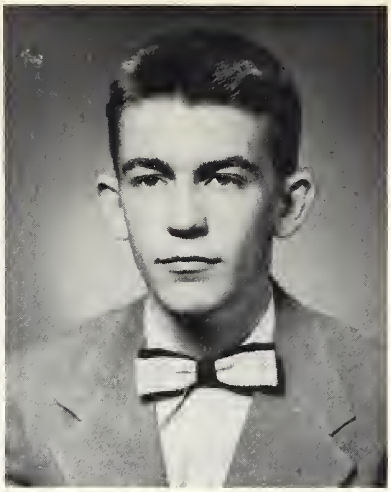
A maiden never bold; of spirit so still and quiet . . .

Jo Ann Pennington

The fair, the chaste, and the unexpressive she.



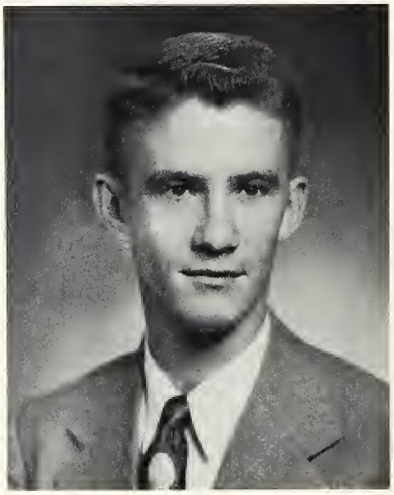
Carl Pierce
Not too serious, and not too gay.



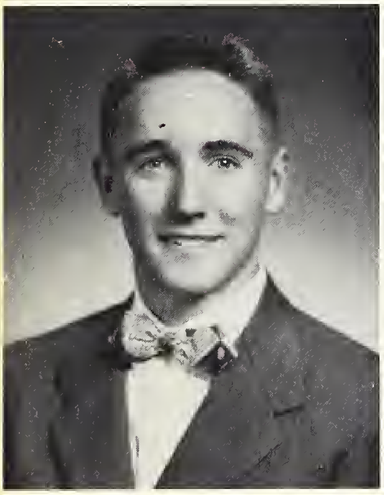
Robert Pierce
The observed of all observers.

Jean Prather
God hath blessed you with a good name.

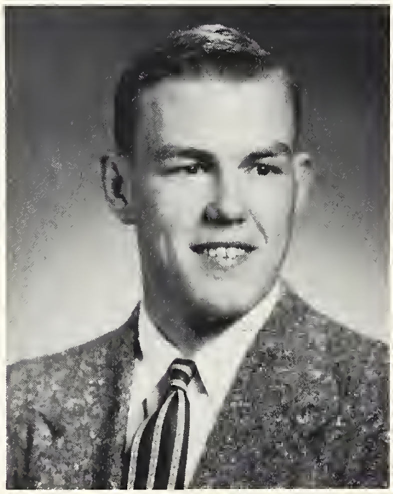
Betty Jean Raburn
To say nothing, to do nothing.



Billy Riley
A golden mind stoops not to show of conceit.



Bobby Robinson
How noble in reason!



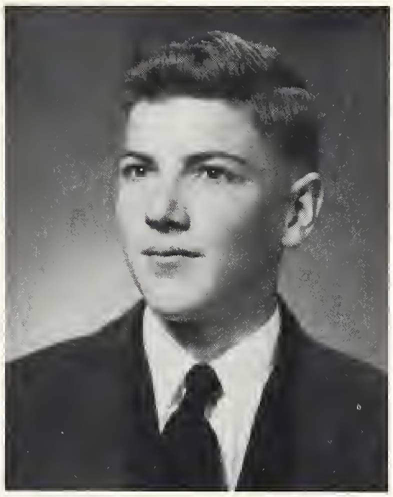
Billy Senter
He was more than overshoe in love.

C. L. Shackelford
A quiet mind is richer than a crown.

Audrey Shields
Not the only pebble on the beach, but we are glad she's in our collection.

Billie Fae Sloan
A kind overflow of kindness.

Bobby Sparkman
I never knew so young a body with so full a head.



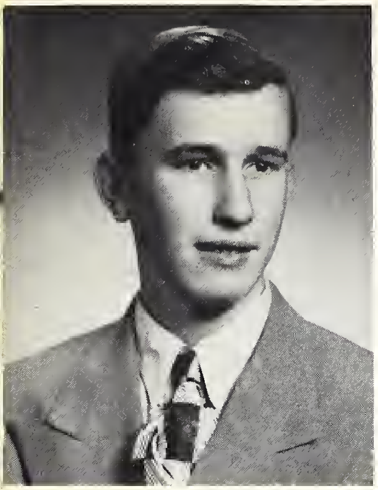
John Spencer
There are two sides to every question, mine and the right side.

Jeane Steele
The key to success lies in thoroughness.

Frankie Tindall
Life is only a document to be interpreted.

Gean Trulove
If I chance to talk a little wild, forgive me.

Billye Turner
Let the world slip; we shall ne'er be younger.



Marion Waddle

Great feeling has he of his own.

Bonna Wallace

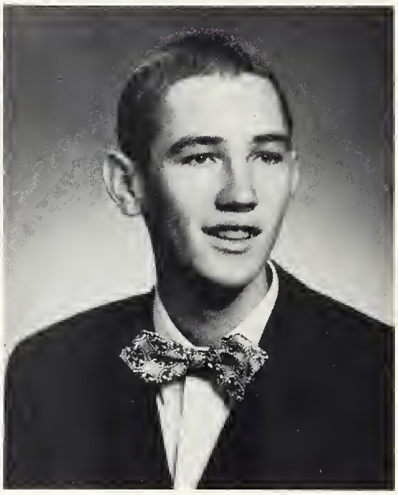
Pleasure and action make the hours seem short.

Patricia Wallace

There's not a minute of our live should stretch without som pleasure.

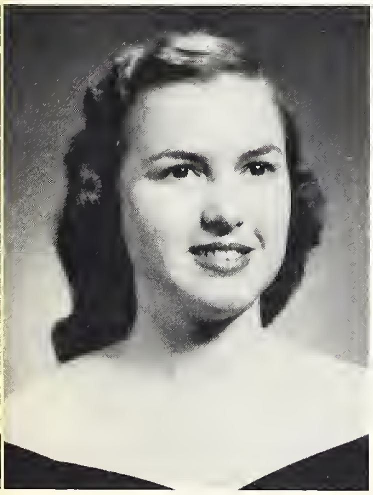
Bettye Walton

How you do talk!



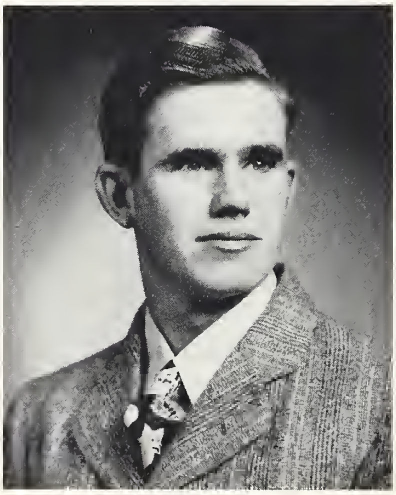
John Walton

Poor prattler, how thou talkest.



Elizabeth Warren

Some say the world is made for fun and frolic, and so do I.

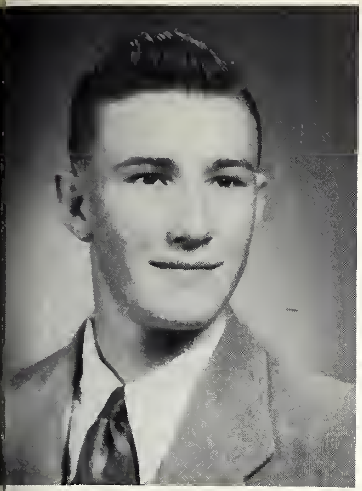


Chalmus Wells

I would not be ambitious in my wish.

Jimmy West

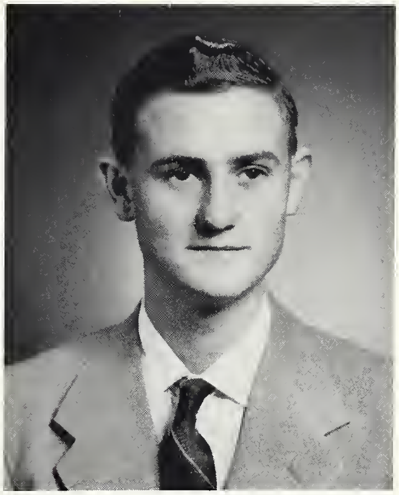
To be a well-favored man is gift of fortune.



Bryson Wilemon
Gone but not forgotten.

Alene Williams
Always the same, always on the bluest days.

Diane Williams
The precious porcelain of human clay.



Troyce Willis
From the crown of his head to the sole of his foot, he's all mirth.

Clara Wilson
I hate nobody; I'm in charity with the world.

Syble Wilson
good laugh is sunshine in a ouse.

Dorothy C. Wood
Friendship is constant in all things save in love.

Dorthy Wood
Modest as the dove.

CHARLES BLAYLOCK

All men's faces are true.

JEWELL KEETON

What a quiet disposition.

NELSON WILBURN

He appears carefree and eas going.

DOROTHY WILSON

Where there's a will, there's a way.
